Conditions of Hire

Please note the hirer named above will be held personally liable for all traffic offences committed whilst in hirers care. i.e. speeding, parking fines etc.

The van is supplied full to the brim with fuel. When the vehicle is returned it is compulsory for the vehicle to be refilled to the brim. This makes it 100% fair for everyone that hires the vehicle. There are no exceptions to this rule, even if you have only done a few miles, the vehicle must be refueled, otherwise you will be charged for the amount of fuel used. It is quite possible for the fuel gauge to read full, even after doing 30 or so mile, this is because the vehicle is fueled to the top.

There is an insurance excess of £500 (five hundred pounds) in the event of accident or any damage caused to the vehicle whilst in your hire. You will be held liable for the first £500 of any insurance claim, if deemed to be the drivers fault, this is the same if the vehicle is damaged or vandalised by a third party, and you cannot supply details.
